DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Roman et al (6,241,366).

Roman discloses a housing (12); a mounting assembly that is received by the housing and which comprises a frame having an annular flange and two retainer walls extending perpendicularly to the plane of the flange and parallel to each other on opposite sides of the opening defined by the flange (18); a contour light projector that is mounted on the mounting assembly (fig 4); and a light beam contour mask that is received by the projector (86);

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Claims 11-21 are allowed.

5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art cited does not teach the following:

- A mounting assembly for receiving and holding a light projector, comprising the following: A frame including an annular flange and two retainer walls extending perpendicularly to the plane of the flange and parallel to each other on opposite sides of the opening defined by the flange; a saddle including a cross member and two end walls extending perpendicularly to the cross member and parallel to each other at opposite ends of the cross member, and a curved seat at the middle of the cross member on which the light projector may be selectively positioned and fixed to the saddle; and a dual pivot system, as parts of the retainer walls and the end walls, providing two pivot axes whereby the saddle may pivot in a first arc about a first pivot axis relative to the frame and may pivot in a second arc about a second pivot axis relative to the frame.
- A contour light projector mask comprising a plurality of shutter blades arrayed about the central axis of a holding ring of the light projector and held between the ring and a seating surface of the light projector such that the blades may be selectively manipulated between the ring and the seating surface to determine a contour for a light beam produced by the projector, wherein each blade has a concave edge toward the central axis of the holding ring, and wherein each blade has a tab, and one blade has two tabs extending laterally in opposite directions from that blade, such that the blades may be manipulated by the tabs to effect the contour of the light beam.

- A contour light projector mask comprising a glass plate having affixed thereto a photosensitized tape that is exposed to light and developed, and in which tape an opening is made to determine a contour for a light beam produced by the projector.
